

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNT CLERK

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is highly important account keeping work involving responsibility for planning and overseeing complex account keeping activities and independently performing the most important phases of such work. The incumbent plans, assigns and supervises major account keeping activities. Work is performed under general supervision and in accordance with outlined policies and procedures, but calls for the frequent exercise of independent judgment. Difficult technical or policy problems are referred to a supervisor for decision or review of judgment where recommendations are initiated. Supervision may be exercised over lower level clerical personnel.
